From Saturday June 19, to Tuesday June 22, 1762.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th of May, 1762,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of this Instant, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of this Instant, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of this Instant. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards is near expiring; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant May, to the 31st Day of July next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Breslau, June 6. The King of Prussia still continues at Bettlern; and Marshal Daun has yet made no Movement. There are daily Skirmishes between the Light Troops on both Sides, but of little Importance. Lieutenant General Verner, who continues in the Higher Silesia, has been in the County of Tetschen, and is returned again to Ratibor.

[Price Three Pence.]

Brunswick, June 8. According to Advices received here Yesterday from Prince Henry's Camp in Saxony, dated the 4th, the Prussian advanced Posts had been attacked on the 2d, all at the same Time, by the Austrian Army, which had been reinforced the Day before, by Seven Battalions. Prince Henry had succeeded in repulsing the Austrians every where, with the small Loss of 200 Men.

Hamburg, June 15. The 12th Instant, his Swedish Majesty's Ratification of the Treaty of Peace concluded here the 22d past, arrived by a Courier to M. Zoge de Manteuffel, Minister from that Court in this Residence; and the Day following the Exchange was made, at M. Manteuffel's House, with M. de Hecht, the Prussian Minister. The same Day Te Deum was sung at the French Reformed Chapel, which is at M. de Hecht's Hotel, upon the King of Prussia's Peace with the Emperor of Russia, and the King of Sweden, at which were present, their respective Ministers: And in the Evening the Prussian Minister gave an Entertainment to both these Gentlemen.

The King of Denmark is ill of a Fever and Cough at Sleswick, which will retard the Review of the Cavalry, which his Majesty had fixed for the 18th Instant, upon the Heath of Pinneberg, at a German Mile Distance from Hamburg.

Hague, June 18. We hear from Cassel, that 14 Battalions have been ordered from the Lower Rhine, to reinforce the Army in Hesse.

The Letters from Madrid of the 31st past pretend, that the whole Province of Tras-os Montes had been evacuated by the Portuguese; and add, that a Body of Spanish Troops was in March from Galicia to invest Almeyda.

The Junction of the Corps, commanded by the Russian General, with the King of Prussia, is not to take Place, as we now hear, till the 24th Instant.

Navy Office, June 18, 1762.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Thursday the 1st of July, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, they will expose to Sale at this Office, Several Lots of old Stores, consisting of Junk, Paper Stuff in decay'd Ropes, white Ocham, Refuse Ends, Rakings, Ground Toes, &c. lying in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham; where such Persons as are willing to be Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing them at any Time in the common Working Hours of the Yard, till the Day of Sale. And as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent. or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by the Persons who shall purchase the said Stores, all Persons that shall attend the said Sale, are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpose. And unless the Stores so purchased shall be paid for and taken away at the End of forty Days, after the Day of Sale, the Deposit shall be forfeited, and become the Property of the Crown.

East
